esterly Man Granted Freedom James A. Tefft, Who, While Intoxicated, Shot Wife, Given Liberty From Insane Hospital-Town Leads in W. S. S. Pledges-Death of Mi-chael F. Murphy-Band Concert -Telephone Operators' Outing.

Ten years ago James A. Tefft, upon eturning to his home in Main street rom a Sunday picnic, and while in a returning to his home in Main street from a Sunday picnic, and while in a drunken frenzy, grasped his gowling piece and shot and killed his wife, Harriet Taylor Tefft. Within five minutes later with gun still in hand, he was arrested by the late Deputy Sheriff Eugene F. Coon and, with the assistance of the late Police Captain Cornelius Bransfield, was placed in a cell in the police station, then in the basement of the cld town hall. Although then quite drunk he apparently realized what he had done. He spoke in terms of the highest praise and deepest affection for his wife, and explained repeatedly that he was glad he killed her and put her out of a life of trouble and tribulation. He had not been in the eell an hour, when he became violent, dashed himself against the iron-barred door, and declaring that he would not live to be sent to prison. He became so violent that he was placed in a strait jacket. He is now a free man.

Judge Doran of the superior court that he was placed in a strait jacket. He is now a free man.

Judge Doran, of the superior court heard and granted Wednesday afternoon, in Providence, a writ of habeas corpus in the case of James A. Tefft, who had been at the State Hospital for the Insane, since December 3, 1908, when he was committed by Acting Governor Raiph C. Watrous. Tefft had been found "not guilty of the murder of his wife by reason of insanity," after a jury trial in the superior court for Washington county. Dr. Harrington, of the institution testified that Tefft's reason had been impaired by the excessive use of alcohol. Marked improvement in his inental gondition since 1913, and teday his mind is normal. For several years Tefft had been given more or mental gondition since 1913, and today his mind is normal. For several years Tefft had been given more or luss freedom, was engaged as driver of a state automobile, had been permitted to visit Providence unattended, and had made a trip to his hometown of Westerly, for one day, since his commitment. Dr. George A.
Simpson in corroboration testified that Tefft s mental condition was greatly improved, and that there would now be no danger in allowing him to have his treedom.

Mr. Tefft was called to the witness stand and answered a few questions, his mother and rister were in the court room but did not testify. Judge Doran decided that Tefft was entitled to his liberty and the petition was stanted. The petitioner was repreented by Assistant Attorney General Fred A. Otis and there was no opposition. Mr. Tefft was formerly engaged in contract work and in discharging vessels' carroes, especially coal, and had a substantial working plant along the river front.
